COPSEY-O'BRYAN.

It gives us unalloyed pleasure to announce the marriage of Dr. Herbert Alonzo Copsey of Alliance and Miss Maybelle Celestine O'Bryan of Broken Bow, Nebr., at the St. Joseph Catholic church in the latter city, Father Donely performing the marriage ceremony. The bridesmaid was Miss Beatrice O'Bryan, sister of the bride, and the groomsmen Mr. Michael O'Bryan, brother of the bride. The wedding breakfast was served by the bride's sister, Mrs. F. W. Hayes, at her residence in Broken Bow.

The happy couple arrived in Alliance today and will take up their residence in the finely furnished home which Dr. Copsey recently purchased in the northwest part of the city. A reception will be tendered them this evening at the K. C. hall.

Dr. Copsey is too well known to our Herald readers to need any words of introduction or commendation from us. His bride is spoken of as one of the most popular and highly esteemed young ladies of Broken Bow, and we bespeak for her a most hearty and cordial reception in Alliance. In wishing them much joy and happiness we but give expression to the universal sentiment of the people of this city.

MORRISON-SHUETT.

Mr. Andrew E. Morrison and Miss Golda Shuett, both of Alliance, were united in marriage at the Methodist parsonage last Saturday evening, Jan. 16, 1909, Rev. J. L. Vallow officiating. The groom is a brakeman in the employ of the Burlington, and has many friends here. The bride has not resided long in this city, having recently come here from Kansas.

They will make Alliance their home and will receive a warm welcome, as all worthy people do. The Herald joins their many friends in congratulations and best wishes for a happy and prosperous married life.

FERNALD-JOHNSTON.

At 7 o'clock last Wednesday evening, at the residence of the bride, occurred the wedding of two of Alliance's popular young people, Mr. Benjamin H. Fernald and Miss Elizabeth Johnston, Rev. W. W. Gordon, pastor of the United Presbyterian church tying the knot. Miss Rose Morris of Bridgeport was bridesmaid and Mr.

Melvin Johnston, brother of the bride, took the part of "best man," while the ring bearer was Evangeline Acheson, cousin of the bride.

After the wedding ceremony, which was attended by only immediate relatives, the bridal party repaired to the residence of the groom's parents where a reception was given, attended by a large number of friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Fernald are well and favorably known to the people of Alliance, and we are sure a host of friends will join the Herald in congratulations and wishes for all the happiness possible in their future married life.

Merry Jane Jollification

The Merry Janes together with their friends, little girl friends, met at the home of Miss Myrtle and Alice Carlson last Monday evening, the event being a little girls' party. The little girl with her doll, dog or teddy bear was there; also the girl with the checkered gingham dress and the pig tail. Some of the girls had invited one of their boy friends to come and this particular boy friend took it upon himself to invite a few of his boy friends to go to the party. The girls pretended to be awfully put out about this procedure, but it is hoped they will forgive and forget. What's the use, girls, the boys all know your capacity as entertainers and they just couldn't resist.

Hila Grand Hotel Bought Today by B. F. Lockwood

J. W. Harper sold the Hila Grand hotel today to B. F. Lockwood who will take charge of this popular hostelry at once. The consideration was $10,000 which shows that Alliance really is not on the decrease. Mr. Harper will return to Aurora where his family is now living.
